

ENGL 2300: Argument and Exposition
Credits:	3
Equivalent to:	ENGL 102
Offered:	Fall Semester
Goal Areas:	1
Prerequisites:	ENGL 1100
Delivery Method:	Classroom
Course Description: Instruction and practice in writing for various academic and similar contexts, with particular focus on formal and informal argument for specific rather than general audiences. Includes seeking out, selecting, using, and documenting written sources, and a component on oral presentation.
Course Learning Outcome #1	Students will effectively use the English language in reading, discussing, and writing critically
Course Learning Outcome #2	Students will express Anishinaabe culture in discussions and writings.
Course Learning Outcome #3	Students will use American Psychological Association (APA) format in citing and documenting sources on all essays.
Course Learning Outcome #4	Students will present one essay to class following the Oral Presentation Rubric criteria.