

HUSV 1200: Personal Care Assistants
Credits:	3
Equivalent to:	HUM 100
Offered:	Spring Semester
Goal Areas:	Specialization Course (Social and Behavioral Sciences)
Prerequisites:	None
Delivery Method:	Classroom, Hybrid, Online
Course Description: This course will prepare students to pass the MN Individual Personal Care Assistant (PCA) Standardized Test. This course focuses on the responsibilities of personal care assistants in assisting disabled and elderly individuals with activities of daily living, health related procedures and tasks, observation and redirection of behaviors, and instrumental activities of daily living.
Course Learning Outcome #1	Students will identify and define PCA duties/requirements.
Course Learning Outcome #2	Students will identify potential emergency situations and required responses.
Course Learning Outcome #3	Students will describe infection control precautions.
Course Learning Outcome #4	Students will successfully complete the MN Individual Personal Care Assistant online training/certification.